

Josh Baseheart to Race in World Cup Meet in New York

Josh Baseheart, 23, is racing in the seventh stop on the World Cup Swimming Circuit, February 3rd & 4th, in East Meadow, New York. This is the only stop in the United States with next and final meet in Brazil.

Baseheart works at Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance in Milwaukee and trains at the Schroeder YMCA in Brown Deer. Baseheart is competing in his specialties the 50 and 100 meter freestyle sprint events.

Athletes from around the world travel to these meets and the field includes many Olympians and world ranked swimmers. World Record holder and Olympic Champion, Michael Phelps is the USA's most notable athlete entered in the two-day competition.
