

Paralympic Nationals

Schroeder swimmer Alex Dionne recently competed in the U.S. Paralympics Swimming National Championships at Palo Alto College Natatorium in San Antonio, TX from August 10-12. Some great swims were turned in by Alex as he swam to a gold medal finish in the S7 200 M Fly on Thursday morning. Alex followed this race up with a second place swim in the 400 M Free, two third place finishes in the 50 M Free and 50 M Fly, and a fourth place finish in the 100 M Back. Way to go Alex! Fast times were turned in by other Paralympics athletes as many new American and Pan/Am records were set as well as 7 new World records.
